

Dan Ward
Sr. Associate

Dan has an extensive background in operations, project management, and organizational leadership with the past seven-years directly held in a diverse range of Information Technology positions. Dan is an accomplished military veteran with an extensive background in operations, project management, training, and organizational leadership. Over the seven-years, Dan has gained a broad range of Information Technology experience through roles that range from consulting, training, technical writing, systems integration, quality assurance, online marketing, requirements management, and service management within private and public sector organizations. Dan is a pragmatic leader with a propensity of taking action to exceed standards and achieving results.

Dan has a Master's of Business Administration from Saint Martin's University and graduated Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Leadership from Brandman University. He was awarded for his superior academic performance, earning the Distinguished MBA Award for Spring 2019, and is a member of both the Phi Kappa Phi and Delta Mu Delta honor societies. Dan is certified in ITIL Foundations, Lean Six Sigma Green Belt, and is a Project Management Institute certified Project Management Profession (PMP).